Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders (APLH)

This accredited Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders is ideal for those working in or preparing to work in any industry that involved the retail sale of alcohol. This qualification covers the main requirements of the Licensing Act 2003 and the legal responsibilities of a personal licence holder. Anyone wishing to sell or authorise the sale of alcohol by retail or licensed premises must hold a personal licence. The unique e-learning Management System gives the ability to monitor, manage and record training activity. Successful delegates will achieve a Level 2 Award in Personal Licence Holders.

What does it cover?

This e-learning package covers all aspects of the Level 2 award syllabus and is divided into seven easy-to-manage modules, which include:

- Licensing law
- Personal licences
- Premises licences
- The protection of children
- Powers and enforcement
- Temporary events
- Responsible alcohol retailing

What will learners achieve?

Those taking this e-learning course will engage in approximately six hours of training, which will count towards the recommended 8 guided learning hours they will be required to undertake before taking the Level 2 APLH qualification. Their knowledge will also be tested by a total of 84 multiple-choice questions across the seven modules, and they will have access to a comprehensive glossary of licensing terminology.
