

Level 2 Oliver McGowan Training Programme

The Course

The Oliver McGowan Mandatory Training on Learning Disability and Autism is the government recommended training programme designed to ensure all health and social care staff have the essential knowledge, confidence, and understanding needed to provide safe, compassionate, and inclusive care.

What you'll cover:

- > Remembering Oliver's story
- > What having a learning disability means
- > Unconscious bias
- > Learning from lives and deaths
- > Diagnostic overshadowing
- > Important laws and standards (Human Rights Act, Mental Capacity Act, DNACPR, advance care planning)
- > Adapting our practice – reasonable adjustments and communication

Who's this course for?

- > Support workers
- > Administrative and leadership teams
- > Care sector professionals
- > Residential care staff
- > Care home managers
- > Community support teams
- > This course equips you with the essential knowledge and awareness to support people with learning disabilities or autism

Overview

Course Type

Part-Time

Duration

1 day

Location

Eastleigh College, Fareham College and Southampton College

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements, but you will need to provide an DBS check document with your application.

Apply today

